

JOB OPENING

at the
FULTON COUNTY OFFICE FOR AGING

Aging Services Specialist

Typical work activities, illustrative:

- Interviews Older Adults and their families to determine needs
- Assists in determining eligibility for services and programs
- Assesses for home delivered meals and transportation
- Provides Information and Assistance for people of all ages
- Facilitates Public Education meetings
- Works with the Program Staff to positively engage older adults and their families
- Works in the NYSOFA Client Data Base

Minimum Qualifications:

- ❖ Successful Graduation from high school or possession of high school equivalency certificate AND completion of 60 credit hours from regionally accredited NYS registered college or university with minimum of 12 credit hours in psychology, sociology, gerontology, or closely related field.
OR
- ❖ 2 years paid experience in community organization that supports older adults (such as a senior center, nursing home or ARC).
OR
- ❖ Combination of the above training and experience.

Applications available via Fulton Co. Personnel Department, 1 E. Montgomery St., Johnstown.

For more information call 518-736-5650 and ask for Andrea Fettinger, Director.